

Trending News □ How awkward is it to film a sex scene? Celebrities spill the tea

News / True Crime

□ 0 Comments □ July 23, 2020 □ Jim Cue

Corey Feldman ‘My Truth’: Everything on the allegations of sexual misconduct

Several women have recently come forward accusing former child actor Corey Feldman, who starred in films such as Goonies, License To Drive, and Lost Boys, of alleged rape & abuse, including physical & sexual assault.

The former 80's child star is a known activist against sexual assault & pedophilia in Hollywood. Corey Feldman, who claims to have insider information, has threatened to expose those who are taking advantage of vulnerable people within the entertainment industry.

Corey Feldman made a documentary that attempts to expose predators within the Hollywood community. His documentary film My Truth: A Rape of 2 Coreys presents allegations that Corey Feldman and fellow child actor Corey Haim were both sexually abused by Hollywood moguls.

Feldman has received criticism over the documentary, though. Critics claim the project is just a "greatly exaggerated money-grab" profiting from child abuse by simply repeating claims published in this article by National Enquirer on November 8th, 2017.

Despite his participation in the fight against sexual abuse in Hollywood, multiple claims that Feldman is allegedly perpetrating acts of abuse himself have now surfaced. Here is what we know.

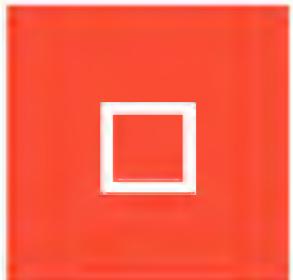

The Mindy Robinson editorial

Multiple women have come forward allegedly accusing Corey Feldman of instances of rape, sexual abuse, sexual harassment & physical assault. Although some of these allegations have already circulated on social media over the past decade, they were recently publicized by Mindy Robinson, a conservative activist, political commentator, actress & former associate of Feldman.

On June 16 of 2020, Mindy Robinson published an open editorial titled “Corey Feldman is a Sexual Predator: Former Angels Speak Out” to lend weight to some of these accusations. She published it here.

 “He demanded I had to wear white if we hung out or did an event which was . . . weird, but whatever. Then he started demanding that I couldn’t eat meat in front of him. He had actually invited me to dinner, but then refused to “allow” me to order anything with meat because he was vegan and found it “offensive” which was the last time I agreed to ever take him up on dinner. “

□ “According to her, Corey Feldman, not only destroyed the lives of women who were around him, he wanted to control everything; the way they dress, the things they eat, and the way they live their lives. As stated by Robinson, the icing on the cake is the drugs he lures women to do with him so that he can take advantage of their vulnerable condition and have sex with them.”

The editorial mentions an incident where Robinson was invited to Feldman's birthday party. Requirements for entering the party included a choice: pay an entry fee, or strip down to her bra & thong.

Robinson also alleges that she later found out that Feldman was having unprotected sex with women. Robinson claims to have cared for one woman who was sick from all the drugs & alcohol Feldman had given her. Robinson stated:

“I held her hair while she cried and threw up, while Corey stomped around angry because she wouldn't have sex with him”. She says Feldman had also given the girl a bladder infection.”

□ “Corey liked using his “celebrity” status to reel in young, usually out of town, naive girls, but it turns out he also convinced them that a make-up sponge dipped in a questionable spermicide he bought from China would protect them from every disease in the world . . . including AIDS.” Robinson wrote.

Robinson further adds, “Corey Feldman is a manipulative, emotional bully and takes advantage of everyone he knows. I very well believe that he himself was a victim of sexual abuse...but that does not give him the right to sexually violate women all the while pretending to fight Hollywood predators. Make no mistake, Corey Feldman is a sexual predator of the worst kind.”

The accusers

Eight women have spoken out as victims & witnesses of Corey Feldman's alleged sexual, emotional, mental, and physical abuse. Some of them have worked in very close proximity with Feldman, or have been a part of Corey Feldman's former band, Corey's Angels. Here is what we know about them.

Mara Moon, a singer & songwriter who was a part of Feldman's 2017 tour, alleges she was subjected to emotional abuse because she refused to acquiesce to Feldman's sexual advances. She was forced to watch his orgies, drug use, and abusive behavior.

Jacqueline Von Rueden, one of Corey Feldman's former band members from the spring & summer tours of 2017, allegedly claims that Feldman and his wife Courtney Anne Mitchell, (Now Courtney Feldman) were both fond of group sex parties, often luring newcomers to participate in group sex with them. Von Rueden also filed a police report on Feldman for sexual battery.

© Indulgent Life Photography

"There were several times at his home or on tour where he grabbed at my butt or breasts" says Von Rueden.

Allegedly, Von Rueden also claims that she witnessed Feldman sodomize an unnamed girl while his wife watched on, encouraging him.

"This happened while on tour in New York City. I tried to go back to the tour bus with the other girls after our show but he yelled at me and said I had to go with him because it was his birthday. We had a party at his hotel suite. Some of the girls left and then Corey had sex with the ones who stayed besides myself and one girl who was there with her boyfriend who only had sex with him while we watched.

“Eventually that couple left too. One of the other girls had told Corey earlier in the day that she was going to have anal sex with him as a gift for his birthday. She had never done it before and when he told her he wanted to do it, she said no because she was scared and she had changed her mind.

His wife Courtney started screaming at the girl, saying that she had to do it because she already said she would. Corey yelled at her too. The girl started crying and kept saying no, but Corey didn’t care and he forced himself on her. His wife was touching me and kept saying “Isn’t that so hot?” while he raped her. I had done so much MDMA and ketamine that I was physically ill, I felt freezing cold and I couldn’t move or speak.”

Poeina Suddarth, a costume designer, and musician who worked with Corey Feldman in 2016 & 2017, allegedly revealed that Feldman not only used women for sex but also robbed them of their hard work. She accused Feldman of using the costumes she made for him without ever paying her.

“As long as you’re listening to him and dancing on his signals you’re acceptable but the moment you start making your own decisions he kicks you out of his group and he uses your belongings without your permission. “

Suddarth also allegedly claimed that all the donations, which Corey collected to help him fight sexual abuse, were allegedly redirected to his own personal purse.

Margot Lane, music director & bandmate who worked on the spring & summer tours with Corey Feldman allegedly spoke of the artist's habit of slipping women unsuspecting drugs. Lane also filed a complaint with the California Labor Commissioner's Office for unpaid wages and penalties. The court sided with Lane, stating she was owed over $7000. Details can be found here.

Chantal Knippenburg allegedly calls Feldman a sexual predator, claiming allegations of Feldman behaving inappropriately with underage girls. In June 2020, Knippenberg claimed to have proof that Feldman, in collaboration with another former child actor, Jamison Newlander, were conducting inappropriate business relations with young girls in the form of a talent agency.

Allegedly, in order to be considered for an audition, young girls were required to take pictures of themselves and send them to Feldman for approval. The pictures were allegedly received by a woman named Nicole Howe, who was responsible for deciding which should be forwarded to Feldman.

Knippenberg alleged in an interview that many of the pictures that came through were disturbing to see.

□ "There were many pictures of young girls dressed in lingerie leaving very little to the imagination."

Like Margot Lane, Knippenberg also made further allegations against Corey Feldman, claiming he fed drugs to some of these underage girls then would proceed to abuse them. Knippenberg alleges that Jamison Newlander not only knew of this happening but witnessed these events himself. Newlander remains silent on the issue.

HEAR THE STORIES BEHIND THE HEADLINES. FIND OUT WHAT'S BEEN HAPPENING AND TELL US YOUR IDEAS FOR CHANGE.

Web Link to Zoom: LALocalTownHall.com

Due to current constraints on our Locals, this is not an official SAG-AFTRA event.

Amy Clark, another fellow Corey's Angels musician, tweeted a picture of herself with a scratch on her arm and wrote "Thanks @Corey_Feldman for his nasty scratch u gave me while pushing me into a wall after screaming at me." The tweet was later deleted.

In 2016, Corey Feldman also allegedly left an angry voice message for former "Corey's Angel" band member, Krystal Khali, when he found out that she was preparing to leave the band.

The fallout

Only days following the publication of Mindi Robinson's open editorial, Corey Feldman was scheduled to be one of the panelists on the town hall meeting organized by the LA committee on Sexual Violence. This panel consisted of several SAG-AFTRA survivors of sexual violence.

Although the panel didn't mention Corey Feldman's name directly, the panel was abruptly cancelled due to allegations of sexual misconduct against one of their panelists.

Corey Feldman has taken to Twitter, as well as a variety of other publications to categorically deny every allegation made against him. There have been allegations that during these denials, Feldman has participated in victim shaming of some of the accusers as well. Feldman allegedly leaked naked images of Jacqueline Von Reuden, one of his accusers.

Furthermore, Corey Feldman claims a group called “The Wolfpack” cooked up these accusations against him, with the sole intention of tarnishing his reputation and stifling his voice. Feldman claims The Wolfpack are interested in suppressing the allegations of sexual misconduct Feldman made against Hollywood in his documentary.

Those interested in watching My Truth: A Rape of 2 Coreys can do so here.

All claims made against Corey Feldman here still remain allegations. Corey Feldman has not currently been charged with any crimes.

Share With:

Tags

Amy Clark Chantal Knippenburg Corey Feldman Jacqueline Von Rueden Mara Moon
Mindy Robinson My Truth: A Rape Of 2 Coreys Poeina Suddarth Sexual Allegations

Author

Jim Cue

Jim Cue is a Miami-based documentary filmmaker and occasional writer. Jim's passion? Digging up true crime rabbit holes. His obsession? Fact-checking them. Jim's favorite leisure activity is fact-checking crazy stories somewhere on the beach.

jcue@filmdaily.co